The procession and exercises attending the cornerstone ceremony were one of the most impressive Masonic services ever given in El Paso. A special meeting of the Masonic lodge, held Thursday evening, at which the degree work was performed.

AMUSEMENTS.

"THE GIRL FROM THE U. S. A."

El Pasoans had more to be thankful for than they suspected. Thanks to manager Fogg, who refused to boost the "Girl from the U. S. A." at the El Paso theater was only about half filled Thursday evening to witness a stock company performance of the musical comedy. The actors spoke their lines as if they were seriously interested in their work, but the effect was not as pleasing as "The Quaker Girl" by about the same distance China is from the Quaker settlement. The Chinese characters were such only by grace of the digital wits and one spoke with a decided brogue. The girl saved another innocent American girl from the clutches of the terrible Chinese mandarin by waving a Chinese laundry list in his face, the adventures were extra-ditated and the stage reporter got "The Girl from the U. S. A."

AT THE CRAWFORD.

"Held by the Enemy," a delightful civil war play, made a decided hit last night at the Crawford. It will be repeated tonight and Saturday with a matinee. Saturday, Sunday afternoon Mr. Taylor will repeat his success, "The Man on the Box," and Sunday night he will play "The Wolf."

HIPODROME RINK.

Ladies may receive instructions and skate free each morning from 10 to 12 at the Hippodrome rink. The management has engaged lady instructors especially for these free morning lessons. Hereafter Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday evenings from 7:30 to 8:30 the City League basket ball teams will play matched games at the rink. Admission will be 10 cents—Adv.

AT THE GRECIAN.

"The Woman in White," Wilkie Collins's story-classic, will be shown today only at the Grecian. This is another "Thanksgiving" two-act masterpiece. Marguerite Snow, James Cruz and William Garwood are at their best, and capably assisted by a strong cast. You'll enjoy this equally as well as you did "Undine" and "Miss Robinson Crusoe"—It is produced by the same man. A "Thanksgiving" picture is always good, but this is an exceptional one. Don't miss it. Reserve your boxes by phone 5298; open from 7:30 to 11 p. m.—Adv.

FATHER GETS JUDGMENT

OF $100 AGAINST HIS SON
J. H. King, 37, recovered a judgment of $100 in justice of the peace James J. Murphy's court against his son, J. H. King, Jr. The plaintiff alleged that after he and his son had bought the Menger hotel property, on Overland street, it was later sold, and the amount of $185, he claimed, was due him on the deal.

Chronic Dyspepsia.

The following unsolicited testimonial should certainly be sufficient to give hope and courage to persons afflicted with chronic dyspepsia. "I have been a chronic dyspeptic for years, and of all the medicine I have taken, Chamberlain's Tablets have done me more good than anything else," says W. G. Mattison, No. 7 Sherman St., Hornellsville, N. Y. For sale by all dealers.—Adv.

THIRTY PRISONERS GET EXTRAS.

Thirty prisoners in the county jail were thankful Thursday to Mrs. T. J. Sullivan, who for their Thanksgiving dinner added extras, consisting of cake and fruit. Each prisoner received an orange and an apple. To the regulation diet of the prisoners in the county jail Thursday at noon was added turkey, cranberry sauce, pumpkin pie and fruit.

A Marvelous Escape.

"My little boy had a marvelous escape," writes P. F. Bustiams of Prince Albert, Cape of Good Hope. "It occurred in the middle of the night. He got a very severe attack of croup. As luck would have it, I had a large bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in the house. After following the directions for an hour and twenty minutes he was through all danger." Sold by all dealers.—Advertisement.
